

Programs of Study - Career

TECHNICAL STUDIES

TECHNICAL STUDIES

Associate in Applied Science Degree

The Associate of Applied Science in Technical Studies offers an opportunity for students to continue technical coursework from two or more approved technical programs. This will allow students to gain skills in emerging occupations or meet employer needs by blending courses from multiple technical disciplines into a single approved degree program. This is an individualized program of study between the student and their advisor using courses from Kansas Board of Regents Career and Technical approved programs.

